

WOMEN

Montana Women Writers: A Geography of the Heart

Edited by Caroline Patterson, introduction by Sue Hart

Witness Montana through the eyes of Montana women writers who represent a spectrum of voices & perspectives, from the past to the present, from the plains to small towns, featuring fiction, nonfiction & poetry. The anthology features excerpts from Judy Blunt's Breaking Clean, Maile Meloy's Half in Love & Ellen Bauml's Girl From the Gulches: The Story of Mary Ronan. Writers included are Grace Stone Coates, Mildred Walker, Dorothy M. Johnson, Debra Magpie Earling & Mary Clearman Blew.

395 pages, cloth $24.95, paper $18.95

Lady Blackrobes

Missionaries in the Heart of Indian Country

By Irene Mahoney O.S.U.

In 1844, the sisters of the Ursuline Order left their Toledo home for the plains and mountains of Montana with well-intentioned hope of bringing Native Americans into their religion. Drawing on journals, letters and other archival material, Lady Blackrobes shares their engrossing story of determination in the face of great hardship while providing an honest look at the negative impact of missionaries on native culture.

329 pages, b&w images, paper $16.95

Motherlode

Legacies of Women's Lives and Labors in Butte, Montana

Edited by Ellen Crain & Janet Finn

Contributors take readers on a journey through three generations of women's lives, from Butte's early days, to the struggles of the Depression era, and to the post-war boom and bust, as Butte played out its mining wealth. Motherlode provides rich accounts of individual women and women's organizations who have influenced lives and shaped Butte's history.

342 pages, b&w photos, cloth $32.00, paper $22.00

One Night in a Bad Inn

By Christy Leskovar

The fascinating true story of two colorful immigrant families who lived through extraordinary times. Rich in history and character, this remarkable saga follows a notorious matriarch, two daring fugitives, a heroic Irish doughboy, and a beautiful, inspiring lady across the parched plains of eastern Montana to the raucous mining town of Butte, Montana, to the bloody battlefields of the First World War. It is a great read through which the reader learns some intriguing history through the lives of some very intriguing people.

571 pages, b&w photos, cloth $24.95

Mary Fields

The Story of Black Mary

By James A. Franks

Born a slave in Hickman County, Tennessee in 1832, Mary Fields (Black Mary) was a strong black woman with dreams of freedom. After winning her independence at the end of the Civil War, Mary Fields left Tennessee for St. Peter's Mission in Montana, where she met the author's grandmother. In 1892, at the age of 60, "Black Mary" became the first African American woman ever to carry the U.S. mail, working a dangerous 17-mile route between Cascade, Montana and St. Peter's Mission. This is the inspiring story of a woman who loved life and lived it to the fullest during a challenging period in U.S. history.

165 pages, cloth $14.95

Also available by James A. Franks:

Mary Wells

213 pages, paper $12.95

James Wells of Montana: the Years 1860-1885

261 pages, paper $14.95

Miss Leslie's Secrets

By Eliza Leslie

Was it really so different in 1854? Rediscover the adventures of domestic life in Miss Leslie's classic guide to cooking & housekeeping. First published in 1854 by Leslie, this reproduced book contains 1,011 recipes that will happily feed families for generations; a treasure for any bride. A fascinating journal filled with seasonal menus, oils, home remedies & perfumery. Recipes range from rhubarb cups, onion custard & fried cabbage to venison, fresh trout & dressing terrapins.

520 pages, cloth $18.95